

SECO O P T

Observations concerning Colours

IT has been observed that some Substances, as very thin by being formed into Plates according to their various thickness they appear in the former Book because they seem and were not need of Light there did conduce to further Theory of Light, the parts of nature Transparency depend on the count of them. distinct, I have